

13 Rainbow Ravine Road Mount Tomah NSW

2  1

Entrenched on the peak of Mt Tomah, this secluded, whisper quiet property offers the very best of the four seasons. Experience the magnificent changes to the expansive gardens all year round with white tipped tree tops in winter, to the blossoming smells and sounds of Spring and the rainbow of reds, oranges and yellows in Autumn. Situated in a picturesque setting, the property has a bushland backdrop with views over an escarpment to Katoomba and Wentworth Falls.

With over 11 hectares of grounds, almost half of which are cleared, you will find a quaint timber cottage nestled amongst the gardens which offers much more than meets the eye. Tastefully renovated and oozing character throughout, the cottage combines a mixture of new and old with reconstituted and recycled rare timbers and features throughout. Accommodation comprises two double
