Wind back the clock to a time of simple pleasures, and soak up the sense of timelessness when you step inside this stunning 100 year old mountain cottage ...

In the absolute best street in "The Heights", this well-preserved period residence has enjoyed a sympathetic revival, and possesses the most amazing views of Sydney and beyond that you could possibly wish for.

Visible from the moment you enter, the enormous living area is highlighted by a bank of picture windows & doors on 3 sides, that open out to a deck covering the entire eastern side of the home ... and yes, those views. Just amazing.

Original floorboards & heritage architecture feature throughout the interiors. The beautifully restored kitchen is home to a gas stove and an enormous open fireplace, currently utilised as a quirky storage nook.

All 3 bedrooms feature original leadlight windows, with 2 bedrooms overlooking the verandah. The huge main
