You can't turn back the clock but you can wind it up again!

Bennett Property would like to invite you to take a step back in time and welcome you to "The Kurrajong Picture Theatre", a historic landmark building, built in 1934 of solid double brick construction, prominently positioned in the popular and bustling Kurrajong Village.

This fantastic piece of history was a sight to be seen in all it's former glory. One of the hottest spots to trot on a Saturday night in the Hawkesbury with everyone dressed to impress wearing furs and coat tails. Some may even remember arriving to the picture theatre on the back of "Hanlon's Truck" (a well known mode of transport from Bilpin down the mountains) or perhaps arriving by train on the then operational famously known "Pansy" Kurrajong Train Line. Steeped with history, the Theatre was also used
